THE ARTHLERY COMPANY FINAL-LY CAPITULATE.

Ordnance Turned Over to the Sher-Iff in Obedience to the Order of the Adjutant General-Inspecfog Quarantine Mattons,

Galveston, Texas, December 11.-Today the Galveston Artillery company received another letter from General Mabry, adjutant general of the State, demanding the arms and accountements belonging to the State and in the possession of the artilfery company. In his letter General Ma-

"On the 6th of May, 1830, because of the refusal of the Galveston Artillery compacomply with the militia law as return of certain arms, accountements and ordinance stores in their possession, and said order instructed General L. M. and said order instructed General L. M. Oppenheimer to receive them. The records in the department show that and armament was delivered to General Oppenheimes by said company, thus recognizing the legal right of the governor to demand and recover them. Later the commanding officer, Capitain S. L. Crawforth compiled with the law, and therefore said special order was rescribed by an order dated June 26, 180. This certain armament was given to the artillery company by wirther hald company becoming a part of the volunteer guard of the State, and it was clearly so understind and accepted.
